The Barton System At A Glance

Parents of dyslexic children can learn to become tutors, as can professionals like Reading and Resource Specialists, Speech-Language Therapists, Educational Therapists, and Private Tutors.

My son is now in Level 5 of the Barton System and he's in a reading frenzy. When we were shopping at Costco, I finally had to take his book away. He said it was so good he couldn't put it down. Those were the magic words I'd hoped to hear for so many years.

After one year of tutoring, he's gone from struggling with second-grade readers to rapidly and accurately reading -- and loving -- fifth-grade books. Your system is fabulous.

What is a Level?

The Barton System is divided into ten levels. Which means you don't have to learn the entire system before you start. You only need to learn one level at a time.

Each level is shipped in a separate, easy-to-store box and contains everything you need to be successful including tutor training on DVD, a tutor manual with complete lesson plans, our color-coded letter tiles and much more.

Step by step, we teach you the unique methods and sequence of teaching reading, spelling, and writing used by professionals in dyslexia clinics.

The Barton System is used by:

- Parents – homeschool or after school
- Volunteer tutors in Early Intervention Programs
- Reading & Resource Specialists
- Volunteer tutors in Adult Literacy Programs

Thanks to the Barton System, my fifth-grade son went from testing at a second-grade reading level to testing at a seventh-grade reading level in a year and a half.

In spelling, he's now testing at his grade level (fifth), up from a first-grade level last school year.
